

FEATURING Flowstyle BMX

Inspiring Students

The Flowstyle BMX team has been delivering inspirational assemblies for over a decade. Entertaining your students while conveying important messages, this interactive assembly will quickly become a school favorite with your students and administration alike.

Important Messaging & Exciting BMX Tricks

The team addresses the important topics of goal-setting and perseverance while also introducing the relevant topics of bullying, health and wellness, and diversity. The Flowstyle team will also work with you to incorporate your school messaging to ensure they communicate what is most important to your audience.

The highlight of this program is the exciting tricks performed by the professional BMX athletes. Led by X-Games alumnus, Stephen Cerra, the team will demonstrate challenging BMX tricks that will engage and impress your audience, leaving a lasting impact.

“Thank you again for an outstanding show. The students and faculty were in awe! Thank you so very much for driving all that distance to deliver such a powerful message to our students.”
